Acts 2

Leader: On the day of Pentecost all the believers were meeting together in one place. Suddenly, there was a sound from heaven like the roaring of a mighty windstorm, and it filled the house where they were sitting.

People: Then, what looked like flames or tongues of fire appeared and settled on each of them.

Leader: Everyone present was filled with the Holy Spirit and began speaking in other languages, as the Holy Spirit gave them this ability.

People: At that time there were devout Jews from every nation living in Jerusalem. When they heard the loud noise, everyone came running.

Leader: They were bewildered to hear their own languages being spoken by the believers.

People: They were completely amazed. "How can this be?" they exclaimed. "These people are all from Galilee."

Leader: Yet we hear them speaking in our own native languages! Here we are— (both Jews and converts to Judaism), and we all hear these people speaking in our own languages about the wonderful things God has done!"

People: They stood there amazed and perplexed. "What can this mean?" they asked each other. But others in the crowd ridiculed them, saying, "They're just drunk, that's all!"

Leader: Peter replied, "Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit."

Everyone: This promise belongs to you and your children and to all who are far off—to all whom the Lord our God will call to Himself."
