Reader: Gail Ford

Responsive Readings: Matthew 28

Leader: After the Sabbath, at dawn on the first day of the week, a Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb.

People: Suddenly there was a great earthquake, for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, rolled away the stone, and sat on it.

Leader: His appearance was like lightning, and his clothes were white as snow. The guards trembled in fear of him and became like dead men.

People: But the angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. He is not here.

Leader: He has risen, just as He said! Come, see the place where He lay. Then go quickly and tell His disciples,

People: He has risen from the dead and is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see Him.' See, I have told you.

Leader: So, they hurried away from the tomb in fear and great joy and ran to tell His disciples.

People: Suddenly, Jesus met them and said, "Greetings!" They came to Him, grasped His feet, and worshiped Him.

Leader: Do not be afraid," said Jesus. "Go and tell My brothers to go to Galilee. There they will see Me."

Everyone: Then the eleven disciples left for Galilee, going to the mountain where Jesus had told them to go. When they saw him, they worshiped him—but some of them doubted!
